

Announcing the new Town & Gown

series for seniors in the Greater Lansing area to connect and engage with MSU faculty and one another

The Senior Ambassadors Program, an initiative created by Prime Time, MSU's AgeAlive and the Social Science Scholars Program, is launching the Town and Gown series to provide Greater Lansing area seniors with opportunities for social connection and engagement in meaningful activities.

The series involves weekly discussions via Zoom led by MSU faculty who will talk about their cutting-edge research on a wide variety of fascinating and accessible topics – from history and geography to law and psychology – and answer questions from participants. Participation is free, but each session will be limited to 30 participants so that everyone has a chance to ask questions if they wish. We've listed part of the outstanding lineup of accomplished MSU researchers and teachers here, but watch for the Prime Time newsletter for more offerings in this series.

In order to register for one or more of these events, please email agealive.sap@msu.edu with your name and the name of the session(s) you'd like to attend. If you're among the first 30 community members to email, we'll send you a Zoom link for the session. If not, we'll put you on a waiting list and contact you in the event of a cancellation.
